

My name is Daiyi Wu. I started to learn cello at the age of seven from Professor Mingling Yang. After four years of learning, I was admitted into Music Middle School Affiliated to Shanghai Conservatory of Music with excellent grades and became a cello major in Primary Grade Five. And two years later, I got the qualification to directly enter its Junior Grade exempt from Entrance Exam.

From then on, most of my time has been devoted into cello learning and practising with special great guidance and enlightenment from my professor Zheng Chen. In the course of cello learning these years, I got the third prize in the AiQin Cup International Cello Competition held in Beijing in 2014, the first prize in the HaiQu Cup International Cello Competition held in Shanghai in 2015, first prize in FengNiao International Ensemble Competition held in Beijing in 2018 with my two great partners, the first prize in International Music Moscow Competition 2021, the second prize in Hungary III. "Wiener Klassiker" Danubia Talents Online International Music Competition, the first prize in Italy Xth International Music Competition Amigdala , and also the first prize in the Italy Xth International Competition for Young Musicians Massa, the first prize in 2021 Greece Muse International Music Competition, the third prize in the Poland Primuz International Strings Competition, the third prize in the China Prokofiev international music competition.

With good-enough academic and major performance at school, I have got many opportunities to get precious guidance and knowledge from Master Jian Wang, Mula Na, Matthias Gredoler □ Toke Moldrup ,Tilmann Wick and many other great cello masters.
