

Xu Junpeng, young tenor, member of Shanghai Youth Opera Troupe

In 2019, he was admitted to the Vocal Opera Department of Shanghai Conservatory of Music with the highest score in his major in the country.

He studied under the renowned soprano singer, vocal educator, doctoral supervisor Professor Fang Qiong, and art supervisor Associate Professor Feng Yi.

In 2021, he won the second prize in the 13th Golden Bell Awards selection competition in Shanghai.

In January 2023, he won the first prize in the Chinese opera aria group at the Phoenix Award in the China South Korea International Vocal Music Competition.

In February 2023, he won the gold medal in the undergraduate group of professional colleges at the 8th National Higher Arts College Chinese Vocal Music Exhibition and the 10th China Vocal Music Forum.

I was shortlisted for the finals of the 13th and 14th China Vocal Golden Bell Awards (Ethnic).